Graphics Register, GCS, 8 Sept. 49.

1. This ^{agreement} contract for the acquisition of pictorial material is entered into by (name of Contractor) (hereinafter referred to as the Contractor) and the Central Intelligence Agency (hereinafter referred to as the Agency).

2. The Agency agrees, in acquiring any pictorial material from the Contractor, either by purchase, rental, gift or otherwise, and as consideration for such acquisition, that it will use such pictorial material only for official purposes of the government, and further agrees that it will not release such material for commercial purposes.

3. The Contractor agrees to, and hereby grants to the Agency a royalty-free, nonexclusive and irrevocable license to reproduce, translate, publish, use, and dispose of, and to authorize others so to do, for the purposes set forth above, all copyrightable material first produced or composed and delivered to the Agency by the Contractor, his employees or any individual or concern specifically employed or assigned to originate and prepare such material.

4. The Contractor agrees that it will exert all reasonable effort to advise the Agency, at the time of delivering any copyrightable or copyright work furnished under this contract, of any adversely held copyrighted or copyrightable material incorporated in any such work and of any invasion of the right of privacy therein contained.

5. The Contractor agrees to report to the Agency, promptly and in reasonable written detail, any notice or claim of copyright infringement received by the Contractor with respect to any material delivered under this ^{agreement} contract.

6. The Contractor agrees to consider transactions with the Agency as confidential in nature. He further agrees not to disclose to persons not connected with the Agency the fact that he is furnishing the Agency with material, nor to use this relationship in advertising or for purposes of securing other business, or in any way as an endorsement of his material.
